PROJECT SUMMARY

- TITLE: “Document Verification System”
- DOMAIN: PHP

Abstract: This is kind of unique web portal on which person first register and create his education profile along with higher education certificate and experience letter along with scanned copies of documents which then will be verified by government appointed officer and once approved, unique education identification number will be generated for the client and will be send to candidate on his email address. No onwards whenever candidate apply for the job or for the higher study he do not need to provide any previous education details and lots of xerox, they just mention their education identification number so education bodies can programmatically verify candidate detail. This concept save lots of papers due to there is not need of xerox and also save lots of human hours wasted in document verification.
